

3.2.1.2.05 Electrical Energy Variable

Definition

Variable costs relating to the supply and consumption of electricity.

Note that where a Group Reporting Unit owns their own power station the variable costs, (in general the fuel used to produce electricity) have to be included in this type of cost. This means that the detail regarding the nature of the cost for own power generation will be lost for reporting purposes.