

3.2.1.2.13 Labor Expenses Subcontracted Variable

Variable costs from external labor resources not on companies' payroll but performing the same function as own employees, directly related to volumes produced. Subcontracted employees are directly supervised by and the workflow is directed by company supervisors. In most cases, the duration of employment is pre-defined and can be renewed.